Gentlemen:

We respectfully submit that pursuance to your order, we have undertaken to make sale of the bonds heretofore ordered by the ~~town~~ people, by our own correspondence and personal effort, and through our attorney, we have made all efforts we deem practical or possible.

The correspondence which accompanies this report shows that we have been in communication with the dealers throughout the Country, north south east and west. We have ascertained that very serious objections is maintained universally, on account of the small number of population and tax valuation, and that, therefore, we can only make a sale through a bond dealer. This can only be done by allowing them a fee for making the sale.

We have ascertained that this is the universal method of disposing of such bond We have made every effort to get the best possible Terms and we have an offer of par for the bonds provided we will allow $700.00 for expenses which will include the foreign attorney fees and cost of preparing the bonds. Both of these items, we are informed, are usually borne by the town. We think that a trade near this figure the best to be obtained. We also have a similar offer from the Wachovia Loan & Trust Co. of Winston, N.C. the expenses and other items to be allowed them being $750 ~~00~~ and we think we can get them to reduce this Amount from $100. to $50.

This 4 items have been filed & is now posted as record

We, therefore, advise that you instruct us to make the best trade possible, not to pay more than $700. for the sale, and close the matter.

Very respectfully
