A large number of citizens appeared before the Board and asked that the Hog Ordinance be repealed during the present War Crisis. After discussion, the following ordinance was unanimously adopted.

"Ordinance Relating to Hogs in Town.

"Whereas, the existing war conditions render it necessary that each citizen of the United States does his patriotic duty in producing and conserving food; And Whereas, the existing Hog Ordinance in the town of Marion renders it impossible for a citizen of the town to raise a hog except at a distance of 300 feet from any dwelling; And Whereas, it is the desire of the Board of Aldermen of said town to permit citizens, who desire to do so, to raise hogs on their own premises during the stringency of present war conditions:-

"Now, Therefore, Be it Ordained by the Board of Aldermen:-
"1st. That the existing ordinance pertaining to keeping hogs in the town of Marion, N.C. be and the same is hereby suspended until further enactment by this Board.

"2nd: That all persons, firms or corporations maintaining and keeping hogs in said town shall keep them in pens and said pens shall be kept in a sanitary condition, and any person, firm or corporation failing to keep such hog pen or hog pens in a sanitary condition as aforesaid shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of $5.00 for each offense and said guilty party shall forfeit the right to keep and maintain a hog or hogs within said town and be required to immediately remove such unconitorious for or pros -
